Glastonbury' on Castlewood - down by the river

On first impression you can see the superior craftsmanship and quality of this stunning acreage residence. The featured Atrium style entrance opens to the formal lounge and dining area boasting Jetmaster fireplace, soaring ceilings to 5.2m and walls of glass filling the room with natural light.

Continuing to the air conditioned family living and meals area your attention is drawn to the recently renovated designer kitchen and stunning wood flooring in the sunken lounge before it flows seamlessly out to the alfresco entertaining pavilion.

In a separate wing away from the living areas are three bedrooms and second bathroom with separate toilet. The second level is reserved for the parent's retreat which privately ove
